BETHEL STARS TO SHINE IN MINSTRELS

AMERICAN LEGION PLANNING A VARIETY PROGRAM AT ODEON HALL NEXT WEEK.

Undaunted by the small attendance at their play last fall, the members of George A. Mundt Post will present at Odeon Hall on Friday of next week a minstrel show, complete in every sense of the word, supported by a large chorus and many extra features. The program includes a one act farce, "Henry's Mail Order wife", tap dancing, cornet solo, and music by the famous Bluebird Orchestra, besides selections by a banjo trio, men's and ladies' quartettes, and solos.

The minstrel show is being coached by Mrs. Emma Young and the farce is under the supervision of Donald Kellogg, who is in charge of public speaking at Gould Academy.

The fact that the event is sponsored by the Legion and under such able direction—and also including so many of Bethel's talented artists—will, it is hoped, draw a full house. This show will be given but one night and tickets are now being sold at Bossmann's. Just look over the names below and arrange for your seat now.

EASTERN STAR INSTALLATION

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 1st, Purity Chapter, O. E. S., held its regular meeting, at which time its newly elected officers were duly installed. At 6.30 a very delicious supper was served to about 50 members. The menu consisted of escalloped oysters, salads, hot dishes, pies, cakes and coffee. The dining room was attractively decorated in red and white crepe paper and a Valentine was placed at each plate.

At eight o'clock the Chapter was opened and after the regular business the officers elect were installed in a very impressive manner by Past Master Albert Wright of Star King Chapter, Berlin, N. H.

After the installation ceremonies worthy Matron Emma Young in behalf of the Chapter presented a Past Matron's Jewel to the outgoing Worthy Matron, Barbara Lyon. The presentation was made in a sparkling bit of verse. At this time also Mrs. Al Vanvers in a most pleasing manner presented to the new officers a gold piece in behalf of the Chapter.

A social hour followed the closing of the Chapter and a general feeling of good fellowship and enthusiasm prevailed all looking ahead to the pleasant and profitable year under the guidance of the new officers. The announcement by the Worthy Matron that the men will preside over the supper and entertainment for the March meeting is of assurance of an enthusiastic response.

The newly elected officers are as follows: Worthy Matron—Emma Young; Worthy Matron—Fred Morrill; Associate Matron—Ruth Carver; Associate Matron—Earle Davis; Conductress—Eva Brown; Conductress—Elsie Davis; Treasurer—Harriet Morrill; Chaplain—Grace Philbrook; Warder—Ada Durell; Sentinel—Arthur Cutler; Organist—Suzanne Russell; Ad—Harriet Hall; Rath—Gertrude Boyker; Father—Betty Anderson; Mother—Anna Twaddle; Electa—Mabel Robertson.

CONGREGATIONAL MEN MAKING PREPARATIONS

(Special Dispatch to The Citizen) Congregational Parish Feb. 8, 1933.

The men of the Congregational Parish in Bethel are making preparations for their annual Chicken Pie Supper and Entertainment, which will take place in the Congregational Dining-Hall on Tuesday, Feb. 28, at 6.15 o'clock. This promises to be the outstanding event of the season in Bethel.

Tickets for admission to the dining-hall fifty cents, cabaret entertainment free to all who purchase tickets for the supper. To those who do not secure supper tickets, a charge of fifty cents will be made for the entertainment. You can, therefore, secure free entertainment with your supper or pay your money and take your choice.

The best chefs in Oxford County will make and bake the chicken pies, assisted by a noted chef from the Copley Plaza in Boston, directed and supervised by a Belgian nobleman, whose name is too long to insert here. It is rumored that Fred Merrill and Prof. Hanson will furnish material evidence of what a real custard pie should be like. They surely have sampled a sufficient number to qualify as connoisseurs. Other masters of the culinary art will contribute to the menu. It is needless to say that something out of the ordinary may be expected when John Butts in. The rolls may come from a Garrett; but they will be all the better for that, and other edibles may be served direct from a Crane. Our fore-mothers served them that way, and our fore-fathers called them good. Why should not we? As to the coffee to be served; well, after sampling it, you will be glad to say Farewell to all other brands.

And what about the service? Do you remember Doc Brown and his corps of colored waiters on a similar occasion? Then be assured of equally prompt and efficient service. If you have chickens, prepare to dress them now; for bolts and bars will not hold, when Guy Thurston, Herman Mason, Dr. Tibbitts, Lonie Ramsell, and Robert Hastings start on a foraging expedition. One will be ren or its equivalent in value will be your quota, if the same is surrendered voluntarily. Otherwise we make no promises.

No information is at present available in regard to the entertainment, except that Judge Hastings has promised not to sing and that Deacon Russell will not be permitted to make a speech on prohibition.

On a former similar occasion 248 tickets were sold in advance. This made it necessary to set up a table in the kitchen, while the men of the Parish ate in the furnace room. The dining-room has an easy seating capacity of 200, and only that number of tickets will be sold for this supper. A word to the wise ought to be sufficient. Secure your tickets early and keep up with the Van.

Your reporter hopes to secure some advance information in regard to the entertainment for your next issue.

SMITH-BILLINGS

Lewis R. Smith and Miss Rose J. Billings were united in marriage Feb. 4 at 8.30 p. m. at the home of Rev. R. C. Dalzell. They were attended by Mrs. Smith's brother and sister, Elvin and Frances Billings. The single ring service was used.

Mrs. Smith has always lived at East Bethel. Mr. Smith, coming from Hampden, Maine, has been in East Bethel for the past four years. Their many friends wish them much happiness. They will reside in their new home which Mr. Smith has started to build.

MISS BECKLER AND PARSONS TENDERED SURPRISE PARTY

A surprise party was tendered Miss Helen Beckler and Miss Dorothy Parsons at the home of Mrs. Mabel Beckler on Friday evening in honor of Miss Beckler's birthday Feb. 7 and Miss Parsons' Feb. 4. The guests assembled at the home of a neighbor to wait for Miss Beckler to return home from work. Soon after she arrived home the guests proceeded to surprise her. She was greeted with a "Happy Birthday" which surprised her so that she shut the door in her guests' faces and ran up stairs.

Games were played by the young people upstairs while the older ones enjoyed candy downstairs. Refreshments of ice cream and two large birthday cakes were served by Miss Beckler and Mr. and Mrs. Anderson.

Miss Beckler and Miss Parsons received many pretty presents. The guests left at a late hour after wishing the guests of honor many more happy birthdays.

Those present at the party were: Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Morrill, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Morrill, Mrs. Ula Parsons, Mrs. Mabel Beckler, George and Frank Parsons, and the Meses Emma Marshall, Maxine Clough, Marion Parsons, Mildred, Phyllis and Lois Bartlett, Roseline Morrill, and the guests of honor, Miss Beckler and Miss Parsons.

GOULD TAKES SO. PARIS 37-34

ALLEN AND CHANDLER LEAD MATES IN SCORING—GAME FEATURED BY RALLIES

In a game featuring rallies by first one team and then the other, Gould Academy downed a hard fighting Paris quintet by the score of 37-34. Both teams seemed weak on defense and strong on offense. However the short wide floor handicapped the winners as it seemed difficult to defend the play from the corners, which was the Paris chief offensive tactic.

The winners started strong collecting an 8 to 3 lead in the first period and a 19 to 15 lead at the half time. In the third quarter So. Paris rallied to tie the count at 26-26. It looked as though the rally was going to carry the Paris quint through to a victory but Allen and Browne came through with two baskets apiece to send Gould into a lead. With the count 27 to 30 and only 1½ minutes to go, So. Paris staged its final drive, shaking two long shots to bring the score to 37-34 before the whistle blew.

Vail, McNally, and Noyes Each Score 14 Points.

Gould Academy easily defeated Colebrook Academy at the New Hampshire school last Friday. McNally's shooting from underneath the basket and Vail's eagle eye kept the "Blue and Gold" with a formidable lead throughout the game. The winners jumped right out and gained a 10-7 lead at the quarter and raised that to 24-14 at the half.

In the second half Browne, Allen, and Vail shot two baskets apiece while McNally was gathering three to increase the Gould total to a final 43-27 points. Throughout the evening the Gould men found difficulty in stopping him. McNally, his guard, was fouled time and again by his takes and clever footwork.

WEST FALLS GIRLS' AND BOYS' TEAMS HERE FRIDAY

Friday night two very interesting basketball games will be played at William Bingham Gymnasium. At 7.30 the West Falls girls will play a return game with the Gould girls varsity team. This should be a great game, due to the fact that these teams played a 32-31 game at West Falls. The Gould girls are confident of turning the tables on the invaders Friday night and taking the long end of the count. Much enthusiasm has been shown by the girls since their victory over a strong Altona team some time ago.

At 8.20 the Gould Academy "B" team will play the West Falls boys' team. The West Falls team is greatly outnumbered by the Gould team. It may be too strong for the Gould youngsters but they are determined to put up a real battle. Boys who work have improved so much this year, as depended on to carry the brunt of the attack. He will play center while possibly Hamlin and Bob Browne will start at forwards. The guards starting may be W. White and H. H. The admission to this double header will be 25¢ for adults and 10¢ for children.

BENNETT'S GARAGE BLOWN DOWN

The new garage building of Charles Bennett at West Bethel, which was nearly completed on the site of his former garage which was totally destroyed by fire last month, was blown down in the high wind last night. We understand that an officer connected with the new structure remains standing.

SMALL TOWNS PAY MORE THAN THEY ARE CREDITED WITH

(The Bridgton News)

A good deal of propaganda is being broadcast from Augusta in an attempt to throw discredit on small towns of the state, probably incited by those who are behind the Kitchen road bill. It is claimed that there are some 443 towns in the state of the 620 towns and cities, which receive back in the form of state aid, from the state treasury, more than they pay in the form of taxes. While we haven't the figures at hand to substantiate our statements, personally we don't believe any such thing. This result is arrived at through a peculiar system of book-keeping on the part of the state officials, in which there is charged off to the towns all money paid back to them both in the form of direct and indirect taxation, but does not give the towns credit for their payments to the state in the form of indirect taxation.

We had occasion to refer to this matter last Fall, when the state tax assessor in a public address in the course of the campaign, claimed that the town of Bridgton got back from the state nearly twice as much as it paid in. According to figures we received from the state treasurer last year $27,850. Our state tax was $14,714, but our indirect tax, which was not included in the state's refund figures, was as near as could be estimated $24,814, more making a grand total paid to the state of $39,528—or in other words we paid into the state treasury in direct and indirect taxes some $11,687, more than we received. We have an idea that this was followed up in all the towns of the state that it would be found that the number of towns which receive more than they pay would be appreciably decreased. It doesn't make a great deal of difference either way. We've got to pay just the same, but we dwellers of small towns are getting a little tired of being pointed to as objects of charity. Of course that is the principal of state aid, for the big fellow to help the little fellow, but the margin of difference is not where so great as the big fellow would have us believe.

HERE AND THERE IN MAINE

It was announced at a special meeting at Bar Harbor Monday that Mrs. David B. Ogden, owner of the property which has blocked the carrying out of the $4,000,000 Rockefeller highway project of Mt. Desert Island, has offered to sell it to the town of Bar Harbor for $5,000.

Two persons were killed and 42 injured in 68 motor vehicle accidents investigated by the State highway police during January.

Alber Ruby, 9, of Lisbon Falls was instantly killed Saturday afternoon when he slipped while trying to board a truck owned and driven by Harrison Curtis. The wheels passed over the child's body.

Eight of the 15 men who took the State bar examination at Bangor this week received passing marks, according to announcement from the State Board of Examiners.

The bodies of Roger S. Leighton, 25, Leonard Hill, 12, and William J. Westbrook were recovered from Highland Lake by a diver Tuesday. They were drowned when the roadster in which they were riding broke through the ice Sunday afternoon.

Maine produced 67 of the 313,574,000 pairs of shoes which were produced in the United States during 1932.

The Census Bureau's report for the year ending June 30, 1931, shows that the operation of the Maine government for that fiscal year cost each resident of the State $17.80. However, another report showed that the revenue receipts were $3.41 for each person.

Planes swept the upper stories of the all north postoffice building Wednesday, resulting in an estimated damage of $8,000.

On Saturday a celebration in honor of the 100th anniversary of the birth of Melville Fuller, former Federal Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, will be held at the State House. Melville Fuller, who was born at Augusta in 1833, was appointed Chief Justice in 1888 by President Cleveland. In 1899 President McKinley appointed him a member of the arbitration commission at Paris to settle the Venezuela-British Guiana dispute. He died in 1910.

John P. LeClair of Andover was in the Rumford municipal court Tuesday charged with driving a truck loaded beyond legal capacity. He pleaded guilty and paid a fine and costs. The capacity of the truck was two tons and the load weighed 2,500 pounds.

The purchase of five new automobiles by the State during January is expected to save between $3,000 and $4,000 during the year. As a result of the purchase five State employees, who in year's past have driven their own cars and collected from seven to ten cents a mile from the State, will drive State owned cars and collect nothing.

Regardless of the depression the number of Maine citizens traveling abroad showed an increase of 59 more persons last year than in 1931, according to figures from the passport division of the State Department.

After a five day trial, Mrs. Amy Stuart of Auburn was convicted of manslaughter in the death of her husband, Stuart. Judge Manser passed the sentence of from three to six years. A motion for a new trial was filed and the case will be taken to the law court. This is believed to be the first time in the history of Androscoggin County that a woman has been convicted on a manslaughter charge.

Mrs. Wheeler was the daughter of Ambrose and Phoebe Sawtelle, and was born in Sidney, Feb. 10, 1847. She is survived by three sons, George E. and Orval L. Wheeler of Oakland, and Dr. Fred E. Wheeler of Waterville, also 11 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. She was affiliated with the Universalist church and its auxiliaries at Oakland, where the funeral service was held, conducted by the Rev. Will A. Kelly, Cascade Grange of Oakland, of which Mrs. Wheeler had been a member for 37 years, attended in a body and performed their burial service. Mrs. Wheeler was well known here by intimate friends of Dr. Wheeler and family during the many years of their residence here. Her last trip to West Paris was with the Doctor and family to attend the twenty-fifth anniversary of the dedication of the Universalist church. Mrs. Wheeler embodied many of the qualities of the old time New England mother. Unassuming, bright and cheerful, of pleasing personality and gracious manner, she centered her interests in home and family, the church and the grange, which she felt were a helpful and mental uplift to rural home life.

Since the new fire engine has been installed effort has been made to flood the skating rink in Mrs. Mabel A. Mann's field with little success, as the mild weather has hindered freezing and snow has been detrimental to its smoothness.

Discontent

It is curious when one stops to consider, how many discontented moods grow solely, not out of any tangible hardships in our own lot, but out of some cozy feeling of ourselves with our neighbors. If another man's wife is handsome, another man's children clever, or his business more prosperous, it really seems to affect us in a most unreasonable way. The truth is that his gains are not our losses, and if all that he has were swept away from him tomorrow, it would add nothing to our store; and yet we indulge in an illogical envy which makes our own fate seem a hundred times harder by its contrast with his as the black eyes behind it brings out the clear lines of some cameo.

Lucky Scrap Jelly

Chop up pieces of candied fruit—you must have at least one-half cupful and you can use twice that amount if you like. If no candied fruit is around, use broken nut meats, or small bits of candy or raisins or dates stoned and finely cut.

Make 2 cupfuls of lemon or orange gelatin. Pour the gelatin into a mould and, when it is cool and begins to "set" add the diced candy. When serving time comes, turn the mould upside down over the serving dish. Wrap it tightly with a cloth wrung out of very hot water and the jelly will fall onto the dish.

A garnish of whipped cream or condensed milk whipped, makes the dish prettier.—Child Life Magazine.

Stuart Royal Family

Beltina, in France, was the home of the Stuarts, kings of Scotland and England. The name of the first emigrant seems to have been Alan, who was steward of Dol in Brittany. Coming into England soon after the conquest, his descendants went on to the North, where one became high steward of Scotland under King David I. The Stuarts, spelled also Stewart and Stuart, took their name from the position of steward. They were not connected with the old kings of Scotland.

Size of the Stars

How large are the stars? To the average individual their size is hard to comprehend, but Dr. Edwin H. Frost, famous blind astronomer in Child Life Magazine, solves the problem. The sun, he says, is 850,000 times as large as the earth, and yet some huge stars are forty million times larger than the sun.

A FEW MOMENTS WITH THE POETS.

TEMPERANCE ODE
(Written for the 4th of July Celebration at Colebrook, 1840.)

Hark! hear that sorrowful moan!
Late youthful happy bride,
She sits and sighs alone,
No husband to provide.

The children of her love,
So innocent and young,
Maternal pity move,
Her breaking heart is wrung.

They wake and cry in vain
For father and for bread;
Their sufferings must remain;
The father's heart is dead.

The young wife knows too well
Her husband will not come,
Till he has drunk his fill
Of wages all in rum.

And then he in a rage,
Will hasten to his cot,
And fill another page
Of misery for her lot.

The north wind whistles round,
And chilly is the night;
No fuel can be found,
Naught but the moon for light.

She thinks on former time:
Love plenty is the sum,
She mourns the dreadful crime
Of robbing men, by rum.

Yet God is kind and good,
He heard her moans and prayers;
The temperance cause has sped,
And cured such woes as these.

Yes, thousands are reformed.
The dealers' hearts relent,
The stronghold has been stormed
And Heavenly aid is sent.

A jubilee we'll hold,—
We all will lend our hand;
Prosperity untold
Shall crown our happy land.

ANTHOLOGY OF LINCOLN

By Minna Irving in New York Herald

A beacon on the mountain height
Where Freedom waves her banner
Bright,
A clear, serene and steady light.

A hand that reaches from the dust
And writes for us in God to trust,
And be both merciful and just.

A soul that lives to cheer and bless
The student in his loneliness
And point the pathway to success.

A spirit humble, yet divine,
That poured its essence superfluous
Unintended at Freedom's shrine.

A broad humanity to all,
A love embracing great and small,
A word, a flame, a bugle call.

A heart of faith inviolate,
A voice immortal in debate,
A lighthouse to the ship of state.

A name undimmed as years go by,
A glory that will never die,
A star eternal in the sky.

His natal day from sea to sea,
Lord God, we render thanks to thee,
For Lincoln and his memory.

Where Boston Gets her Eggs

BOSTON EATS MORE EGGS FROM IOWA THAN FROM NEW ENGLAND

What is the future of the poultry business in Maine? "Is the business to be overdone?" These and other questions are being asked by hundreds of farmers who have found that poultry has paid during the past years and who observe a growing interest in poultry keeping on a farm enterprise.

The diagram on this page showing receipts of eggs at Boston since 1922 would seem to prove conclusively that the production of poultry products in the State of Maine hasn't doesn't affect our Boston market.

"It follows, therefore," says H. L. Richardson, poultry specialist for the Extension Service, in the answer to these questions, "that the answer to what Maine farmers do, but rather by what our consumers do."

The graph shows very clearly," Richardson continues, "how completely Mid-West eggs dominate our Eastern markets. Note that Iowa also sends in one-half again as many eggs as all New England. This means a 100 per cent control as far as price is concerned. Moreover, it is apparent that the quality of products which they supply is what 75 per cent of Eastern consumers are getting.

"Maine poultry producers should bear in mind that it is difficult for the Mid-West producers to get a real quality product on our Boston market; that in this respect the Maine producer has a great advantage. Also that the production of a high quality product, which is always in demand and which our competitors find it so difficult to deliver, is the only field in which the Eastern producer can operate."

"Eastern producers should cease to watch with jealousy the operation of their next door neighbor, but to watch the trend of production, and especially the quality of the product coming from the Mid-West states. If they will do this and stay one or two jumps ahead on quality, they will have little cause to worry from a market standpoint."

Much damage was done the rooms from the copious amount of water used but the home was saved. Mr. and Mrs. Thurlow were victims of a most disastrous fire which consumed their entire buildings at Pigeon Hill about two years ago.

A radio broadcast of much interest to South Woodstock and West Paris people was given at Augusta Saturday, when a group of West Paris High School musical students made their initial bow before the microphone. It was wonderful—Andrews, Bane, Curtis, Lane, and others, all so plain and distinctly heard, but when several selections to his own Hawaiian guitar accompaniment were heard, everyone was enraptured. No need to tell us it surely was our own "Pete" (Linwood Andrews of South Woodstock).

Stanley Andrews, while trying to do a boyish stunt of jumping on a moving automobile driven by Keith Emery, missed his footing and fell, striking on the ear and fracturing one or more ribs.

THE TRUTH

If it is the truth, why put on the soft pedal? Of course there are some people who won't like it. One man quit coming to church because the preacher said, "I prefer a baseball game to any other form of sport, but I have absolutely no use for Sunday baseball. Those who play offer as an excuse that 'it is the only day we can get away from business and we need the recreation and the exercise.' Take away the gate receipts and there would be no Sunday baseball. We might believe these fellows if they did not commercialize the game. We are unalterably opposed to anything that interferes with the religious observance of that sacred day. If the Christian people of the community were a unit they could stop it. Don't blame the ball player. He is probably not a Christian."

Harry Williamson and T. A. Durkee have gone to Boston on business. Mrs. T. A. Durkee is visiting relatives in Boston, N. H.
